The following appeal to the charity of the Jewish members of the community has been forwarded for publication:—

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF BYAH B'RIFH. I
TO THE BRETHERN OF THE ORDER:

The terrible ravages made by the yellow fever among our fellow citizens in portions of the South appeal to the heart of every feeling man; the reports that reach us tell or untoid suffering and heartrending misery. In such a calamity social and sectarian boundaries vanish; we see only the suffering fellow creature, and every effort must be made to bring relief and succor promptly and liberally. Our order has always given evidence that behaviore, one of its cardinal principles, is never evoked without a munificent response. We request you therefore, to meet in your lodges are soon as possible, and make such contributions toward the relief of the plaque stricken sufferer as may be within your means. Contributions should be sent to A. E. Frankland, 195 Main street. Memphis, Fenn. We beseech you to make speed.

THE LOWELL BANK DEFALCATION.

The investigation into the affairs of the Merhants' National Bank is progressing, and the Bank

Examiner, Mr. Needham, will make public the re-suit as early as possible. No complete statement can be made until the accounts with the corresponding banks elsewhere are received for comparison. Colonel Needham states that the investigation so lar indicates that the capital of the bank is unimpaired and that a surplus will remain. The bank officers have orpoposed no compromise with the defaulting cashier.

ANOTHER PENNSYLVANIA POSTMASTER ARRESTED.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9, 1873. A special despatch to the American, from Cumberland, says that for some time money letters, passing through Fannellsburg (Fulton county, Pa.) Post Office, occasionally missed reaching their destination, and were never again heard from. Suspicion rested upon James Miller, Postmaster, and a detective was ordered to work up the affair. A decoy of money letters was sent, and the detective having gone to the town yesterday and tective having gone to the town yesterday and caught the official at about two o'clock this morning in the act of robbing the letters of money. He was arrested and conveyed to Philadelphia today. The prisoner is a brother to Espie Miller, who is in penitentiary for robbing the mail on the South Mountain Railroad, on which he was agent.

The United States steamship Tallapoosa arrived at the Washington Navy Yard last evening, and was anchored in the stream. No communication was permitted from the shore with the Polaris survivors.

The sloop-of-war Ossipee, Captain Waters, will go into commission at the Brooklyn Navy Yard at moon to-day. The Ossipee is destined for service in the South Pacific squadron.

THE MORMONS.

Reported Carlist Victory in Brigham Sending His Proselyting Emissaries Abroad.

> The Prophet Again Elected President of the Zion Mercantile Association-Prayers and Currency Not Plentiful at Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 9, 1873. The public session of the Mormon Conference and private meetings of the priesthood termi nated last evening. The departing missionaries were set apart and blessed to-day. The burden of the discourse was money and the fashions of the sisters, the Saints were not paying their and the daughters of Zion were threatening the existence of polygamy and the Kingdom in following after the fashions of Babylon. Brigham's health is declining; he only spoke twice and distinguished himself by hostility to free schools and life insurance companies. He announced emphatically that he would oppose legislation in favor of free schools and use all his influence everywhere against them. A teachers association of the best educated men in the Territory had been in session a week, and it resulted by asserting that those who cried loudest for the free schools were those who paid no taxes. neither had they any property to tax.

Thirty-two elders were called on mission, principally to Great Britain and Scandinavia; only three of them for the United States and five for the Sandwich Islands. The fighting apostle, Joseph F. Smith, goes to Europe.

BRIGHAM GOES INTO TRADE AGAIN.

At the last April Conference Brigham telegraphed to the New York Herald that advancing age admonished him to retire from the direction of financial affairs. H. S. Eldridge, a banker, succeeded the Prophet in the Presidency of the Zion Co-operative Mercantile Institution, but at this Conference Brigham has thought it necessary to resume the place. The Descret News has published a statement that this institution does an annual business of nearly $4,500,000, but in half yearly statement, just published, t exhibits only $70,000 assets over its liabilities. The latter are put down at $1,992,000 and assets only $2,663,000, made up of mercantile stock, $355,000 and the balance, $555,000, supposed to be in fixtures, notes and accounts.

A large portion of the discourses has been calling for the patronage of the saints here, and in opposition to the commerce of the Gentiles.

opposition to the commerce of the Gentiles.

Financial Affairs
here are still seriously depressed by matters
East. The scarcity of currency greatly embarrasses mining operations. There has been over half a million of lead and silver bullion piled up here within two weeks and can find no purchaser. The they have continued paying all currency under $500. That bank has now they have continued paying all currency checks under $500. That bank has now heavy currency shipments en route, and will be in till blast within a few days, and stronger than ever. Sister Eliza Ann Young, Brigham's seventeenth, resumes the prosecution of the Prophet on the 20th inst. She has secured able counsel, is strongly backed by friends and will prosecute with great vigor and determination to gain alimony and a divorce.

THE FAIR AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 9, 1873. To-day has been the annual gala day of the fair. Business was almost entirely suspended in the city, and the day was almost universally observed as a holiday. The gate receipts of the fair show an attendance of nearly 75,000. The success of the Exposition is assured beyond question, and has far exceeded the expectations. The special feature of the day was the trot between Goldsmith Maid and Glasten: but it ing utterly impossible, with all the e special force organized for the keep the track clear of the to keep the track clear of the immense throng which fairly overflowed it, only one heat was trotted, and that in very slow time, neither rider being willing to risk bis horse or himself in such an unruly and excited crowd. Subsequently another trial was made in the arena of the amphitheatre, which was wited by fully 40,000 people, but the circle was too t to show night speed. The Maid took the

The day was splendid and the exhibition very fine. more entries having been made and put on exhibition than at any fair ever held in this State. Over 3,000 entries appear on the Secretary's books, over 3,000 chirtes appear on the Secretary's books, and nearly all the entries were on the grounds. The purse for the best drilled military company was taken by the Bacon Cadets, of this city, a comparatively new organization. The Hurdle Handicap was won by Victor, Blind Tom second and Blackbird third, after a neck-and-neck contest, which was very exciting. A large attendance is expected to-morrow.

A MILITARY POST ABANDONED.

EASTPORT, Me., Oct. 9, 1873. Company K of the Fifth artillery, which has been stationed at Fort Sullivan for some years, left here to-day, in the steamer New York, for Sackett's Harbor, N. Y. A large crowd of people collected on the wharf to see them off, and the members of the Grand Army of the Republic fired a salute as the steamer left. The abandonment of this post by the government is a serious loss to this part of the State, and especially to this town.

YELLOW FEVER.

Additional Deaths and New Cases in Shreveport.

Mansfield Affected by the Terrible Disease.

THE FIFTH PRIEST DEAD.

Threatened Lynching of the Nurses Who Have Robbed His Body.

Thirty-one Deaths on Wednesday in Memphis.

Death of a Visiting Sister of Charity.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 9, 1873. There is no particular change to note in the epidemic for the last twenty-four hours. New cases continue to be reported, both in the city and outskirts, most of which were children. Dr. Burns, before his departure for New Orleans, said this was the most malignant type of yellow fever he had ever seen, and that it would take a hard frost to kill it off. He said the new cases were less viru lent, but there would be a good deal of suffering for a month to come. There cannot be less than 400 cases now under treatment, most of which are doing well. Among the new cases reported to-day are Arthur Newman, bookkeeper; John Jones and Judge Henry G. Hale.

Among the deaths are Captain John W. Stuart and the fifth Catholic priest.

Colonel D. B. Martin and Captain Haymakeur are doing well. A large number of convalescents are on the streets, and some of the stores are open, but no particular business doing.

The lever has broken out at Mansfield, forty miles from here. Mrs. Burns was taken with the fever eighteen days after the death of her son, who contracted the lever here, and died. Samuel Howard took it twenty-one days after, and is very low. Over fifty jamilies have left the village.

More new cases were reported on the other side of the river and of a very virulent type. Colonel S. J. Ward, a merchant of this city, who had the lever in the country, has recovered. Physicians here have published a notice advising all absentees not to come home until the danger is over, of which they will give due notice.

There were ten interments to-day. L. G. Joiron, R. G. Wiitz and A. Maple, who came here from New Orleans as nurses, were arrested this evening for robbing the body of the dead priest of his clothing, money, watch and crucifix. If the evidence is clear against them they will probably be hung by the citizens, who are greatly enraged at the accused persons. The following is a list of the interments to-day:-Adeline Wurham. Mary Burk. Richard Field. Nathaniel Wright. Letia Switzer. Frank Books. Hiram Saunders. J. W. Stuart. Rev. Father Levsont Dan Brook, (colored).

Terrible Effect of the Yellow Fever at MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 9, 1873.

There was another heavy heavy frost here yesterday morning. There were thirty-one interments yesterday from

Rev. Father O'Brien, of St. Peter's church, is very low with the fever.

Mr. Pike states that nurses will be sent forward to-morrow. A special despatch to the Picayune from Shreveport states that Dr. Bruns says the backbone of the epidemic is broken, but only ice will destroy a poison more malignant than any he ever met. Rev. Father Levsont died of the lever at Shreveport this morning. He was the secretary of the Bishop of Natchitoches, and makes the third priest of that diocese who has been stricken by the scourge, having left Natchitoches a few days ago to assist the suffering at Shreveport.

THE CURRENCY.

A Heavy Draft on the Forty-four Millions of Reserve Not Expected.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, 1873. Party. The Secretary of the Navy, accompanied by a personal friend, arrived at the Navy Yard this afternoon and was received with the customary salute of thirteen guns. He proceeded to the headquarters of Commodore Patterson, the new commandant of the yard, and, after a brief conference was driven down to the wharf, near the ship house, where the Tallapoosa is lying, where he was received by Captain McRitchie, the commander of that vessel, and shown into the cabin on the upper deck, where Captain Buddington and party were assembled. He was accompanied by Captain Crosby, the executive officer of the yard. After some conversation of a general character the Secretary stated that the members of the party must be exceedingly careful as to their statements. and must say nothing but what they were willing to swear to. After about twenty minutes' conver sation the Secretary had a brief private conference on shore with Captain McRitchie, after which he left the yard. Captain McRitchie ascended to the upper deck and informed Captain Buddington and his men that the Secretary had placed no special restriction over their movements, and that they were all at liberty to go ashore if they desired, but they would be expected to return "clean and sober by eight o'clock to-morrow morning." Soon after Dr. Bessel came down the gang plank with a long leather-covered map case strung over his shoulder and left the vard. When accosted by a reporter he answered quickly, and hurried away as if desirous of avoiding all questions.

Condition of the Currency.

ernment. There is no apprehension at the department that the draft upon the $44,000,000 will be very heavy in the ordinary course of business. The outstanding legal tenders, now shown to be over $356,000,000, will be reduced again to those figures at the earliest practicable moment. It may be before the issue of the next public debt statement. All ideas that it is the intention of the Secretary to make any permanent inflation of the currency are erroneous. The Secretary emphatically asserts that the outstanding legal tenders are not to exceed the minimum figures a day more than the absolute demands of the government require.

The Question of Recognizing the Cuban Belligerents.

The recognition of Cuban belligerency by the United States is a topic of discussion in Washington, and another effort will be made during the coming session of Congress to bring it about, Cuban bonds are offered for sale, payable in gold, and drawing seven per cent interest.

The Council with the Comanches and Kiowas. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, under date of Fort Sill 7th inst., telegraphs the Secretary of the Interior that the council with the Kiowas and Comanches was still proceeding and that he in. tended to leave Fort Sill for Caddo to-day.

Injunction Against a Wisconsin Rail-Attorney General Williams to-day received a letter from special counsel Ortin, reporting the complete success of the government in the effort to secure an injunction from the United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin against the Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad in the matter of the proposed bridge across the Mississippi river. Mr. Ortin says the Court fully sustained the views of Attorney General Williams as to the authority of Congress to pass laws upon the subject of bridges over the Mississippi River and the conferring upon the Secretary of War exclusive jurisdiction to approve or disapprove of the location of such bridges, and as to the conclusiveness of his action.

Gold at the Mint. Dr. Linderman, Chief Director of the United States Mint, left for New York to-night on business at the Assay Office. He states that foreign gold is arriving so fast that the Assay Office is bothered in melting it up. There is no lack of double eagles, however, to pay as fast as deposits are made there being $35,000,000 of this denomination in the Assay and Sub-Treasury vaults.

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 9, 1873.

At the Knox County Pair a balloon ascension was made by Professor Allen, of Providence. The balloon rose and sailed off southwesterly, and afterwards took a more westerly direction, and in a short time came down in the George's River at Thomaston, some distance from the shore. The aeronaut was rescued from his uncomfortable position by a boat.
